About the Faculty

Seeking a consistent and a long term career in field of advocacy and practical knowledge in legal matters and as a part of organization where I can get an exposure to learn and develop my skills, abilities and utilize them to contribute towards organizational goal.

I completed my B.A. LL.B.(Hons) degree from School of Law Barkatullah university. Obtained my LL.M. from Christ University of Law, Bangalore specializing in Intellectual Property Rights under Prof I wrote my dissertation in the field of constitution "A Critical Study on the Legal Framework Relating to Prisoners' Rights in India" under Prof Dr.Shampa Dev I.

I worked under many lawyers as an intern during my graduation and practiced as a Junior Associate in M.P. High Court Bench, Indore under Advocate Anil Ojha (President of Bar Council of Indore). I even worked as a legal advisor in Star India Market Research and has also serve in NGO- Helping Hands Group, Bhopal during my practice and is still continued.

I soon realized that the only way to fulfil my need of self-actualization was not by earning great lucre but by becoming an academician. As a law student, I was very fortunate to have extremely accomplished professors who have always been my inspiration in life.
