

Name: Varun Sharma

Designation: Assistant Professor

A Bit about Myself: I am working as an Assistant Professor in Indore Institute of Law, Indore Madhya Pradesh, India. Law is something which has always amazed me! Surprised me! The greatest pleasure of being a law teacher is that, you become the most vibrant student of the class. I believe in imparting students all that I have learned from my professors so that they can attain edge in the subject taught to them. My object is to make students sound in application of law. I did my B.A. LL. B from National University of Advanced Legal Studies, Kerala and LL.M from NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad. My LL.M exposed me to deeper understanding of Constitutional Theories and Public Law as my specialization is in Public Law and Legal Theory. My law College experience gave me a good insight into legal research and writing skills. Teaching has given me a new life as it has shown me that to learn is laborious task but to make others learn, is an “art”.
