2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning peer learning, team teaching, case law method and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Additional Write Up:

Employment of student-centric teaching methodology by Indore Institute of law facilitates a seamless transition from rote learning to application based learning. Such practice assists students to transform from the role of passive recipients to active and involved stakeholders and prepare them to face the competition in the real world post-liberalization. At Indore Institute of Law (IIL) we have supplemented the traditional lecture method with interactive and participative teaching learning which enrich the learning experience of our students and makes them market-ready professionals.

Institutional Practices for Various learners are as follows:

Experiential Learning:

- Academic Intellectual gathering

Various Seminars, Conferences, Symposiums, Special Lectures and Skills Workshops are conducted by eminent Jurists, Senior Advocates and experienced scholars to equip students with skills necessary to thrive in today's modern workplace.

- Student's Body Representation:

Further, participation of students in various Student Representative Bodies as convenors and co-convenors of respective societies and clubs of the institution for conduction of myriads of legal competitions imbibes managerial and leadership skills among our students.

- Court Visits:

The institute arranges visits to District & Sessions Courts, High Courts, Supreme Court, Lok Adalats, Tribunals, Revenue Courts and Family Courts to acquaint our students with the actual court-room activities.

Problem Solving:

- Nyay Sarthi Club :

The Institute promotes critical thinking skills through extensive study and analysis of the landmark case laws. The Nyay Sarthi Club by organizing regular legal aid camps and fortnight legal aid clinic ensures the practical implementation of such study and makes students aware of the ground realities. Under these camps, retired judges of the High Court sit with our students and redress the grievances of the local villagers of Rau, Rangwasa and Sindoda and settle their disputes relating to property, marriage, land, caste problems etc. through amicable methods of negotiation and mediation. A fortnight legal-aid clinic is established in our campus from time to time which enables the villagers to follow up their unresolved grievances taken up in the legal aid camps helping the students to develop Problem solving skills.

- Research Projects and Publications: Students under the guidance of our experienced faculty, are encouraged to undertake research projects and publications in form of legal articles, books, case comments etc. with a view to ameliorate their researching skills, inculcate innovation and critical thinking amongst them.

- Case Study Method:

With a view to facilitate students to have better grasp of the landmark legal cases, teachers often employ case- study methods in their teaching pedagogy. In order to provide insights on landmark legal cases, teachers often encourage students to refer online databases provided by the institute viz., Manupatra, SCC Online, Westlaw Asia and N-LIST for preparing their case comments, case notes and case studies

- Advocacy Skill Competitions:

With a view to implement practical-based learning, the institute annually organizes moot court-competitions, Competitions on Alternative Dispute Resolutions Mechanisms, Judgment Writing Competitions, Trial Advocacy, Master Draftsman, seminars etc. Students are often encouraged to frame moot problems, proposals for negotiations, mediations, conciliations, Confidential Information Report etc., for these competitions. These competitions not only enriches the Experiential learnings but also nurture the Problem solving skills of the students.

- Internships:

The institute liaisons with corporate organizations and reputed law firms to provide suitable paid internships for the advanced learners in Tier-I law firms like Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co., Khaitan & Co, AZB & Partners, Trilegal, Karanjawala & Co, J Sagar Associates and many more. The institute also allows extra time period for these students to complete their internship. These internship opportunities enable students to receive practical knowledge, learn about drafting of commercial contracts and hone their researching skills and to hone their Problem solving skills.

- Lok Adalats:

With a view to acquaint students with concept and functioning of Lok Adalats, IIL arranges regular annual visits for its law students to Lok Adalats. The purpose of these visits is to understand the working of the court, the nature of duties of the Judicial Officers in the matters of Lok Adalat and also to observe how the concept of conciliated settlement of dispute in the traditional Indian culture in the form of Nyaya Panchayats and Gram Panchayats led to introduction of Lok Adalats which added a new chapter to the justice dispensation system of the country.

Peer Learning:

- Indore Institute of Law favors peer interaction and learning in small groups through its Scholar Support Program and Junior- Senior Interaction Programme.

Scholar Support Program: the senior students through their experience act as a guiding lamp for their juniors in the following spheres:

- Curricular Aspects: the seniors usually provide their personal notes and tips on how to excel in university exams.
- Co- curricular Aspects: The senior students help juniors to explore all aspects of college culture (like Moot Court Competitions, Model United Nations, Lex-Bonanza, National and International Seminars, Paper Presentations, Cultural and Sports Events etc.) and make the most out of the opportunities they come across.

- Additionally, the seniors prepare question bank of important questions and lend their personal notes to their juniors.
- Peer Learning Groups: with a view to promote holistic development of slow learners, IIL encourages all its slow learners to participate in various curricular and co-curricular activities. Numerous teams comprising of 1 slow learner and 2 advanced learners have successfully represented IIL in a myriad number of legal and non-events conducted throughout India and have won laurels.

Class-room sitting Arrangement: with a view to cater to the varying learning levels of the slow learners, IIL has a devised unique classroom sitting arrangement where each slow learner is made to sit with 2 advanced learners together. This not only provides a helping hand for the slow learners to grasp the concepts easily but also fosters a healthy,

“How to Avoid tension and stress through meditation”

Date	:	15/03/2023
Venue	:	Indore institute of Law
Resource Person	:	Mrs KritikaChandani
No. of Students Participated	:	120

A session was organized by Indore Institute of law with the help of Career Development Cell on how to avoid stress and tension through meditation. Mrs. Aarti Maheshwari the Fit Indian Ambassador shared her views on meditation. She further added that meditation is crucial in stress management as it promotes relaxation, reduces physiological responses to stress, and enhances emotional well-being. By fostering mindfulness, meditation helps individuals break the cycle of anxious thoughts, improving focus and resilience. Regular practice can contribute to long-term stress reduction and an overall improved quality of life.

Legal Aid and Awareness Camp

Date	:	12th July, 2022
Venue	:	Kailod KartalTahsil - Indore
Collaboration	:	NSS
Number of students	:	180

Indore Institute of Law organized a legal aid camp at village KailodKartalTahsil on 12th July, 2022in collaboration with NSS. The creation of an inclusive legal system depends on access to justice and awareness about rights and duties. It was conducted for a period of one-day with 180 students. The major goal of this activity was to familiarize the pupils with the fundamental ideas of law. The topics of the camp were:

- Legal Rights and Government Programs
- Fundamental Rights
- The Consumer Protection Act, 1986
- The Right to Information Act, 2005
- Importance of environment protection

The students visited about 258 homes in the village and gathered vital data on the quantity of birth certificates, Aadhar cards, PAN cards, and ration cards, among other things and explain them the importance of all these documents and guided them how to make them officially. One of the main goals of the study was to learn about the villagers' current legal knowledge and to inform them of the numerous other legal topics. In addition, ongoing issues with transportation, water, drainage, and health care were observed.

Nukkad Natak

GOOD TOUCH BAD TOUCH

Date	:	2nd August, 2022
Venue	:	Village Sindhora
Collaboration	:	NGO Anant Aman
Scheme	:	GOOD TOUCH BAD TOUCH
Number of Students:		80

A NukkadNatak was organised by the Indore Institute of Law to share a message for equal rights of daughters under the slogan GOOD TOUCH BAD TOUCH under the umbrella of NGO Anant Aman by the 80 students. The nukkadnatak was organized at the villages of Sindhoda.

After the natak, members of NukaadNatak had a word with the audience. Topics like safety, gender equality and sexual harassment were discussed. We received positive feedback from the audience with many women even acknowledging that they felt emotional and overwhelmed while watching the play.

We encouraged people to share their stories with us in order to come up with solutions together. We received complaints from girls and women about how, even after complaining, their complaints were not registered and they had to face eve teasing. The NukaadNatak was an effort towards normalizing the conversations around sexual harassment in the society.

Student Representative Bodies of Indore Institute of Law

Skill Development Cell

It is a body created in the year 2019 with the vision to expand the ambit of the Student Representative Bodies and to provide them with guidance in strengthening their presence in the institution. These student representative bodies work directly under the aegis of Skill Development Cell. The Skill Development Cell is responsible for managing the extra co-curricular activities of the institution. They are assigned with the primary task of developing the skills of the students in crafts that would enhance their knowledge and make them market-ready professionals.

Intra Batch Commercial Arbitration Competition

Date	:	16 th and 17 th August, 2022
Day	:	Tuesday & Wednesday
Venue	:	Indore Institute of Law, Indore
Judges	:	Advocate J.R.Parashar Advocate Sunil Goyal Advocate SangramPatnaik

No. of Participants: 110

The event aims to promote the study of International Commercial Law and Arbitration as a method of conflict resolution. The event received the massive participation of 110 students from all the programs i.e., B.A.LL.B(H), B.B.A.LL.B(H), LL.B(H) as a part of Practical Learning among the students.

After rigorous sessions in the quarter-finals of the competitive International Commercial Arbitration Competition four best teams out of eight were selected to proceed to the semi-finals.

The eminent debating and the level of the negotiations by the participating teams took the judges by surprise. However, at the end of such an impactful session the esteemed judges chose the two most deserving teams as the finalists. The results were then announced in the presence of the esteemed judges and the awarding ceremony was completed. The judges mentioned how each team had definitely put forth their best and how it was definitely a tough call for them.

After the award ceremony was completed, cash prize worth Rs. 25000/- was awarded to the winners. As correctly put forth by Advocate J.R.Parashar in his address that each participant is a winner as they were the chosen one to represent their universities in this competition. Chief Guest said that Arbitration provides array of choices, quick decision making and has cost benefits.

Trail Advocacy Competition

Date	:	9 th and 10 th October, 2022
Day	:	Sunday & Monday
Venuue	:	Indore Institute of Law, Indore
Guest	:	Hon'ble Justice Gyan Sudha Mishra
No. of Participants	:	90

Indore Institute of Law as a part of Demonstrative Learning organized Trial Advocacy Competition. The institute facilitates the students to participate and attend Trial Advocacy as a part of Demonstrative Learning and to make them competent Human-Legal Professionals and Responsible Citizens. A total 90 students participated from various streams i.e. B.A.LL.B(Hon.), BBA.LLB(Hon.), LL.B.(Hon.).

Trial advocacy is the branch of knowledge concerned with making attorneys and other advocates more effective in trial proceedings. Mock Trial is a method of clinical legal education. Learning the law in practice at the college level is the essence of mock trial. Mock trial is nothing but model court trial offered through simulation. It teaches the students law in practice before the Criminal Court. In mock trial students are trained to show the complete procedure within a span of one hour. It is taught as an essential trade skill for litigators in law schools and in continuing legal education programs.

At the end of the competition, Winning Team which comprised of 3 members was awarded with the Trophy, Certificate and a cash prize of Rs.11000/- and Runner Up Team with the Trophy. Certificate and Rs.5100/-, All the participants were provided with participation certificates.

Intra Batch Negotiation and Drafting Competition

Day	:	Tuesday & Wednesday
Date	:	10 th & 11 th January 2023
Venue	:	Indore Institute of Law
Panel of Judges	:	Adv. Abhishek Tugnawat Adv. JR Parshai
No. of Participants	:	75 Students

For a lawyer it is essential to be versed with the skills of drafting a coherent document that could secure the needs of the client to the full extent. Drafting is no longer just a skill for excelling in the field but also has become a decisive skill that recruiters look for.

For promotion of these skills in students the Legal Aid Society conducted Negotiation and Drafting Competition on 10th, 11th January, 2023. The Competition was based on the commercial laws and the transaction taken for this competition was Grant of Franchising rights of a café. 40 teams comprised of two students per team participated in the competition.

In the first round the participants were allotted with their designated Client i.e., the Franchisor & the Franchisee. The participants represented the clients and negotiated the terms and condition of the Franchise Agreement on the basis of the confidential information provided by their respective Clients. It was a knock off round in which the winner of each negotiation round qualified for the next round i.e., Drafting Round in the second round the qualified participants drafted the Franchise agreement on the terms and conditions they have negotiated in the first round. The participants were judged by the industry experts. The winners were deciding on the basis of quality of drafting and on the marks secured by them in the negotiation round.
